GABRIEL MICU

DIPLOMATIC LAW

PRO UNIVERSITARIA

III 24675

GABRIEL MICU

DIPLOMATIC LAW

C - 281787

281784
UNIVERSITATEA
"DUNĂREA DE JOS" GALAȚI
BIBLIOTECA 2

PRO UNIVERSITARIA
BUCUREŞTI
2017

Contents

CHAPTER I

Prolegomene 9

1. The state in Antiquity 9
2. The territory in the Middle Ages 14
3. The formation of national states 16

CHAPTER II

The state as a higher form of socio-political organization 19

1. Theories that led to the grounding of the politico-legal state concept..... 19
2. The concept of statehood 25
3. Ways of lawful modifications of a state's territory 33

CHAPTER III

The population as a constituent of the state 39

CHAPTER IV

State functions 48

1. State - higher form of social organization 48
2. Internal functions of the state 49
3. External functions of the state 51

CHAPTER V

Political conditions of state existence. State power 53

CHAPTER VI

Principles of Public International Law governing the formation of states and characteristic features 60

1. General considerations 60
2. The principle of sovereignty. Sovereign equality of states 64
3. The principle of equal rights of peoples and the right to dispose of themselves 71

CHAPTER VII

Concept, definition and characteristics of diplomacy 80

1. The concept of diplomacy. 80
2. The definition of diplomacy 81

CHAPTER VIII
Diplomatic law as a branch of public international law (concept, definition and characteristics) 83

CHAPTER IX
Diplomatic law sources 85

CHAPTER X
Diplomatic relations 91
1. The notion of diplomatic relations 91
2. Establishing diplomatic relations 92
3. Termination of diplomatic relations 95
4. The suspension of diplomatic relations 102
5. Legal consequences of breaking and suspending diplomatic relations .. 104
6. Representation of states interests 107

CHAPTER XI
Diplomatic missions 111
1. General considerations 111
2. Classification of diplomatic missions 115
3. Structure and organization of the diplomatic mission 120

CHAPTER XII
Establishment and termination of a diplomatic mission 124
1. Conditions of establishing a diplomatic mission. 124
2. Transformation, suspension and termination of diplomatic missions 129

CHAPTER XIII
Members of the diplomatic mission 133
1. Definition and categories of members of the mission 133
2. The head of mission 134
3. The staff of the diplomatic mission 139
4. Diplomatic corps 145
5. Appointment of diplomatic mission members 148
6. Termination of a diplomatic mission member function 161
8. Multiple accreditation 165

CHAPTER XIV
The functions of a diplomatic mission 168
1. The concept, legal content and definition of the diplomatic functions... 168
2. Representation function 169
3. The negotiation function 170
4. Observation and information function 172
5. International cooperation 173
6. The function of protecting the interests of the sending state and its citizens 175

CHAPTER XV
Activity of the diplomatic mission 179

CHAPTER XVI
Diplomatic immunities, privileges and facilities 186
1. Notion, characterization, definition of diplomatic immunities, privileges and facilities 180
2. The theoretical foundation of granting diplomatic immunities, privileges and facilities 182
3. Jurisdictional immunity 191
4. Inviolability. General considerations 204
5. The inviolability of a diplomatic agent 211
6. Privileges of the diplomatic mission and its staff 214
7. The categories of persons enjoying a diplomatic status 220

CHAPTER XVII
Special missions as a form of exercise of the diplomatic activity 225
1. General considerations. 225
2. The legal basis of diplomacy by special missions 225
3. Categories of special missions 226

CHAPTER XVIII
Legal framework of special missions 229
1. The concept and features of a special mission 229
2. The terms of reference of a diplomatic mission 230
3. The functions / tasks of a special mission 230
4. Members of the special mission 231
5. Organisational aspects considered for the special mission 232
6. The special mission's headquarters 232
7. Rules of precedence 232
8. Diplomatic status of the special mission and its members 233

CHAPTER XIX
State bodies with responsibilities for external relations 234
1. Head of state 234
2. Ministry of Foreign Affairs 235

CHAPTER XX
Multilateral diplomacy 238
1. General considerations 238
2. Regulations within the multilateral diplomatic activity. 239
3. Subjects of multilateral diplomacy 240
4. International conferences 242
5. International organizations 249

Bibliografie 269